Subject: Modifications to Guidelines for PG End Term Examination - Even Semester 2022

With reference to the notification no 55/2022, dated 7th July 2022, for PG end term examination guidelines, and regulations on conduct of examinations, approved by the executive council on 23rd December 2021, following modifications to the PG examination guidelines is hereby notified -

For Final Semesters -

1. All theory and practical end term examinations for PG students of University departments and affiliated colleges, including dissertation, shall be held in physical mode at their respective centers.
2. Faculty members of the affiliated colleges shall evaluate the answer scripts for their respective centers.
3. In view of rising COVID-19 cases, wherever feasible, the end term practical/dissertation at the University departments and affiliated colleges may be evaluated by two internal examiners appointed by the Principals/Heads/In-charges of Department for their respective centers under intimation to the undersigned.

For intermediate semesters -

4. All theory and practical end term examinations for students of University departments and affiliated colleges shall be held in take home examination mode conducted by the respective centers.
5. Faculty members of the affiliated colleges shall evaluate the answer scripts and conduct the practical examinations for their respective centers.
6. As followed in the previous take home examinations, the end term practical examinations may be conducted using assignment mode or any other innovative method including e-viva, e-quiz, etc.
