Date of Observance: 14 August 2025

Venue: Conference Hall, Sikkim University, Yangang

Organised by: Partition Horrors Remembrance Day Committee of Sikkim University

Introduction

Sikkim University observed Partition Horrors Remembrance Day 2025 with a solemn and reflective programme to honour the memories of millions of people who suffered during the Partition of India in 1947. The event was organised by the concerned committee of Sikkim University, with the objective of sensitising the academic community about the historical significance, human tragedy, and lessons from the Partition.

Schedule of Events

The programme commenced with the Inauguration of an Exhibition of rare and powerful photographs depicting the horrors of Partition. The exhibition was set up in the Wellness Centre of the University, featuring images of displacement, migration, and the human cost of the subcontinent's division.

Dignitaries and Participants

The event was chaired by Professor Abhijit Dutta, Professor, Department of Commerce, and accompanied by Professor Durga Prasad Chhetri, Director, Sikkim University, Yangang. They were joined by esteemed members of the organising committee – Dr Sangmu Thendup and Dr. K. Renuka Devi, faculty members from the several academic departments. Moreover, around 150 students of Sikkim University, Yangang participated, reflecting a strong interest and engagement with the subject. Non-teaching staffs and security personnels also joined the event.

Proceedings

- Welcome Address: The programme began with a warm welcome address by Dr. Budh B. Lama, who set the tone for the observance, highlighting its significance as a moment of remembrance, empathy, and learning from the past.
- Remarks by Professor Durga P. Chhetri: Delivering a short yet comprehensive reflection, Professor Chhetri spoke about the magnitude of human suffering caused by the Partition, the large-scale migration, and the need to uphold unity and communal harmony in contemporary society.
- Remarks by the Chair – Professor Abhijit Dutta: In his address, Professor Dutta shared his personal sense of attachment to the traumatic history of the Partition, underlining its lasting impact on generations and its relevance in shaping the socio-political consciousness of the nation.

- Vote of Thanks: The event concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks by Dr. Sangmu Thendup, who expressed gratitude to the dignitaries, faculty members, organising committee, and students for their active participation and meaningful engagement.

Conclusion

The Partition Horrors Remembrance Day 2025 observance at Sikkim University, Yangang was marked by thoughtful speeches, emotional connections, and an impactful photographic exhibition. The programme successfully fostered awareness about one of the most defining and tragic chapters of modern Indian history while encouraging the university community to work towards peace, tolerance, and national integration.
